A vibrant crowd of young people at a music festival. In the center, a woman with a red headband, sunglasses, and arm tattoos has her hand raised. Other attendees in the foreground are smiling and also have their hands up. The background shows a city skyline under a clear sky.

A close-up, underwater photograph of a young child with brown hair, smiling broadly. The child is wearing a blue wristband on their left wrist that has the letters 'RFID' printed in white. The child's face is wet with water droplets, and their eyes are looking towards the camera. The background is a clear blue water with some bubbles and light reflections.
