RFID blocking card

The image illustrates the difference between a standard credit card and an RFID blocking card. On the left, a standard gold credit card is shown with a smartphone nearby. The phone's screen displays 'Scan Success' with a green checkmark, and a blue signal icon indicates successful data transmission. On the right, an RFID blocking card (labeled 'SHIELD CARD') is shown in front of a credit card, with a smartphone nearby. The phone's screen displays 'Scan Failure' with a red 'X' icon, and a red signal icon with a slash indicates blocked transmission.

RFID (contactless) card data is easy to be stolen without any protection.

The RFID Blocking card Keeps your data safe from remote scanning

Product Application

What is RFID Blocking Card?

RFID Blocking Card is the size of a credit card that is designed to protect personal information stored on credit cards, debit cards, smart cards, RFID driver's licenses and any other RFID Cards from e-pickpocket thieves using handheld RFID scanners.

How does RFID Blocking Card work?

RFID Blocking Card is composed of a mixture of metals that disrupt the scanner from reading the RFID signals. There are outside and inside coating that is not rigid, so the card is very flexible.

RFID Blocking Card is the size of a credit card that is designed to protect personal information stored on credit cards, debit cards, smart cards, RFID driver's licenses and any other RFID Cards from e-pickpocket thieves using handheld RFID scanners.

YOUR MONEY AND PERSONAL DETAILS ARE TOTALLY UNSAFE!

THREE MAIN FUNCTIONS:

1.Keep Your Data Safe

With rfid blocking wallet innovative aluminum-lined interior, you can be sure that your card numbers, address, and other critical personal info is safe from nearby Radio Frequency Identification (RFID) scanners.

2.Prolong the Life of Your Cards

Rfid blocking card helps protect from wear and tear or daily use, much the same way that bank-issued card sleeves do... the difference is, because of our reinforced material, the lifespan of rfid blocking card sleeves far exceeds those basic paper ones... which means your cards last longer too!

3.Quick Identification

Tired of sifting through several rfid blocking cards and wasting time at checkout? We've got you covered, literally. With our bold and personal designs, you'll be able to grab what you need that much faster without all that hunting.
